FALL 2016 NEWSLETTER

Message from the President:

Dear Family & Friends:

Kyle Bailey

Fall classes are now in full swing around here, but before the last school year ended, we hosted our annual Bailey Scholars Reception honoring the 2016 scholarship winners. For a change, we had one event and were pleased so many students could attend. You can see some of the highlights to the right.

We're currently gearing up for the 2017 Scholarship Program that begins January 1st. Last year's total of nearly 3,200 applications will be hard to beat! Please contact us if you'd like to join our Scholarship Selection Committee and help review and score applications. Current and previous winners can volunteer as well.

Also, if you won a scholarship this year, your 2016 Yearbook will be mailed to you in October. So, keep a look out for that beautiful blue book!

I hope you enjoy this edition of the Newsletter.

Warm Regards,

Kyle Bailey

Stafford, Blake: shared his recent college experiences with us. He writes, "Flagler College has provided me with a job as a Historic Tour Guide for the former Ponce De Leon Hotel as well as an ambassador position. I get to represent Flagler College to prospective students and show them around the beautiful campus all while informing them about the amenities that Flagler offers." Blake is also Vice President of CRU (Campus Crusades for Christ) and will be head worship leader for the Fusion Band. In addition, he made the Dean's list with a 3.45 GPA. Blake continues, "Thank you so much for investing into my future and for renewing my scholarship another year. It has been so beneficial and helpful, and will be even more helpful in years to come!"

Thurman, Gabrielle: graduated from the University of Central Florida in December 2015 and is attending Florida A&M University Pharmacy School for Fall 2016. She writes, "Your blessing has truly helped relieve the stress of financial issues. I can't thank you enough."
